Counseling

Sharing

Learning by sharing, Linda Tucker and Steve Ross compare ideas.

Knowledge comes through many channels to enrich the mind and enhance the life. Minds are built at B.C. through classes and books, but also through informal discussions with friends and profs, thoughts in the solitude of the individual mind, and the moments alone with Him, the Source of all Truth and Wisdom.

Good relationships with others are founded upon a good relationship with Him. Socially we establish lasting friendships and gain memorable experiences by the little bricks of daily contact as we work together building minds, souls, and bodies.

Won't somebody get that guy in the grass to help!

A Christian's responsibility is to constantly maintain and build up the physical body God has given him. A gym class, intercollegiate or intramural sports, the relaxation of an informal game of shuffleboard, or a refreshing walk through leaves or snow keep the temples of the Holy Spirit healthy and strong, while skills and friendships are built.

INVOLVED WITH CHRIST

Being informed of missionary work is part of our responsibility as students. Each year the Student Missionary Fellowship sponsors a missionary conference. The purpose of this conference is not only to inform the student body of missionary work, but also to challenge the student that they may desire to serve Christ.

INTRAMURALS

Success or failure—all in the bounce of a ball.

The Intramural program this year has provided many students with the opportunity of participating individually in various athletic events. All of the students are assigned to four intramural teams: Athenians, Lancers, Olympians, and Spartans. An expanded program of team and individual sports does much to help prepare each student for his future service.

IN MEMORIAM

I would not have you grieve for me today
Nor weep beside my vacant chair
Could you but know my daily portion here
You would not, could not, wish me there.

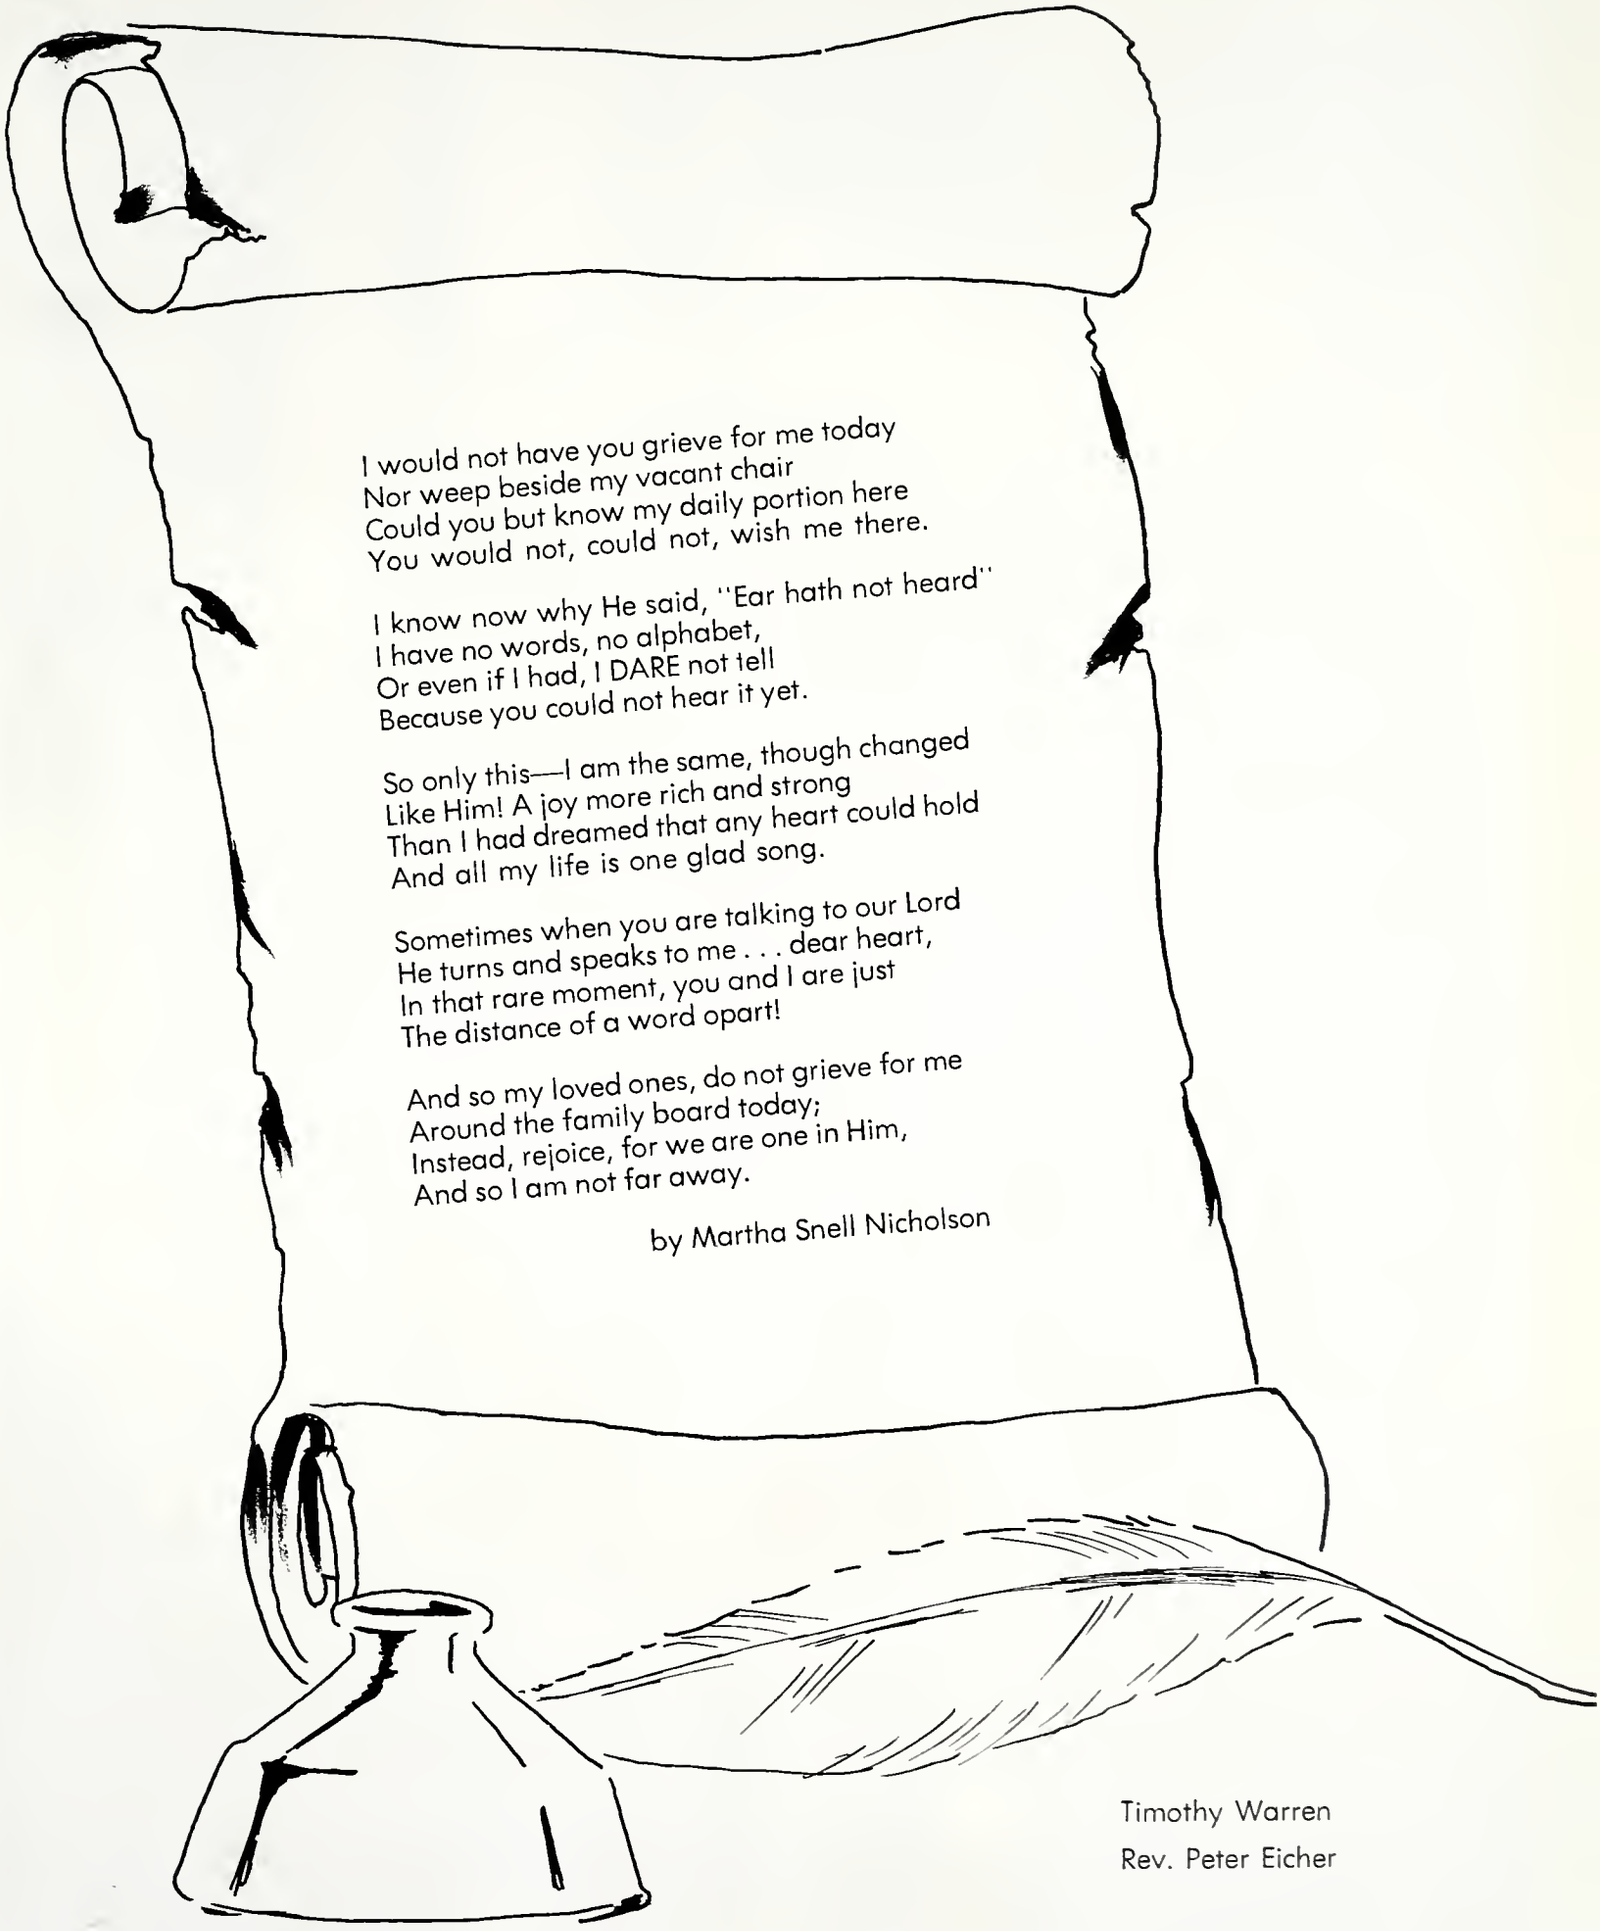
I know now why He said, "Ear hath not heard"
I have no words, no alphabet,
Or even if I had, I DARE not tell
Because you could not hear it yet.

So only this—I am the same, though changed
Like Him! A joy more rich and strong
Than I had dreamed that any heart could hold
And all my life is one glad song.

Sometimes when you are talking to our Lord
He turns and speaks to me . . . dear heart,
In that rare moment, you and I are just
The distance of a word opart!

And so my loved ones, do not grieve for me
Around the family board today;
Instead, rejoice, for we are one in Him,
And so I am not far away.

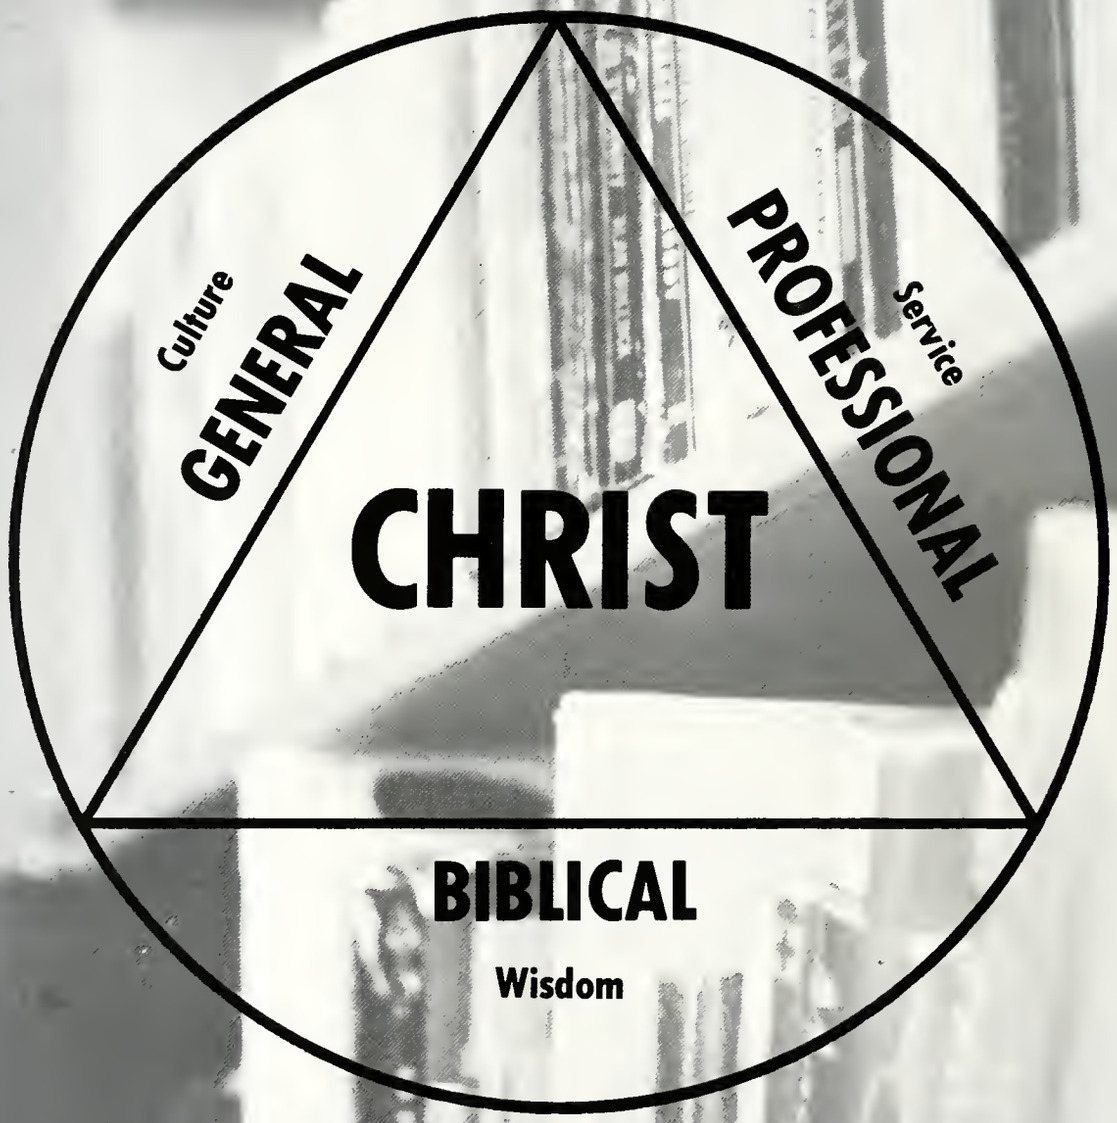
by Martha Snell Nicholson



Timothy Warren
Rev. Peter Eicher

"No, the fact is that they longed for a better country altogether, nothing less than a heavenly one. And because of this faith of theirs, God is not ashamed to be called their God, for in sober truth he has prepared for them a city." —Hebrews 11:16

J. B. Phillips Translation



"Thou therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also."
